

LOUISVILLE TIMES

LOUISVILLE:
JOHN G. BULLARD & JOHN C. NOLDE, EDITORS

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES BUCHANAN,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, OF KENTUCKY.

Electoral Ticket:

For the State of large—HON. ELIJAH BISH, and COL. JOHN W. STEVENSON.
First District—COL. R. D. GHOLSON.
Second District—JOHN A. FINK.
Third District—JOHN C. CRAVEN.
Fourth District—HERMAN MAGOFFIN.
Fifth District—B. F. BICK.
Sixth District—W. M. D. REED.
Eighth District—R. W. WOOLLEY.
Ninth District—H. STANTON.
Tenth District—HERALD KELSEY.

TUESDAY.....AUGUST 5, 1856.

We copy the following eloquent article from the Cincinnati Enquirer:

All hail New York!—The Union is complete.

The telegraphic wires have, as this, communicated the glad tidings all over the United States, that the Democracy of New York are once more united and on the high road to victory. The late State Conventions, "Hard" and "Soft," which convened at Syracuse, came together in a spirit of harmony and nominated a single electoral and State ticket, which will triumphantly carry New York by a large majority.

The nominations for Governor and Lieutenant Governor could not have been improved, and were the very men demanded by the circumstances of the times. Anissa J. Parker, the gubernatorial candidate, is a gentleman of superior talents and high character, who, for many years, has been a distinguished Judge of the Supreme Court. His judicial position has presented his participation in the Hard and Soft difficulties, and he is, therefore, acceptable to the whole Democracy. His name, together with that of Judge Vanderbilt, is eminently popular with the Democracy, and will greatly strengthen the Buchanan electoral ticket.

The electors at large—Addison Gardner and David L. Seymour—are men who have acquired national reputations. The former was Lieutenant Governor with Elias Wright in 1844, and was afterward chosen Judge of the Court of Appeals, the highest tribunal in the State, which he presided with great ability and distinction.

The electors at large—John C. Breckinridge and John W. Stevenson—will be entitled to the highest credit for their services in the cause of the Democracy, whose harmonious action will give confidence to the friends of Buchanan and Breckinridge in every part of the country.

The greatest enthusiasm and good feeling seem to have characterized the deliberations of this important meeting of the united New York Democracy, whose harmonious action will give confidence to the friends of Buchanan and Breckinridge in every part of the country.

Neither Fremont nor Fillmore now stand the slightest chance in the Empire State, as there has been no time within the last three years that the united Democracy did not have a majority of many thousands, had it been concentrated, as it will be this year.

The Election in Louisville.

There was an election held in this city yesterday, but the Know-Nothings had it all their own way. But for Democrats went to the polls, nothing could be done to do so. Numbers of the very best Democrats in the city definitely refused to vote. They preferred that the election should go by default, than to enter the contest unorganized and unprepared, where but a partial Democratic vote could be given. As for the Germans, they nearly all left the city, with their families, on Saturday, Sunday, and yesterday morning, apprehending rioting and mobs on the part of the Know-Nothings. The city is yet under "the sign of terror," although there was no rioting yesterday.

The Know-Nothings were busy all day, and doubtless their vote will be full strength.

BRENT AND CORRUPTION.—The Black Republicans have bought up and subsidized many newspapers in this contest, by money furnished from Kansas aid subscriptions and the Mariposa trust.

They lately attempted to buy up the Hollander, a staunch Democratic paper in Ottawa county, Michigan. They offered large sums of money to the editor if he would strike the Buchanan flag and run up with Fremont; but he, like an honest man, spurned their corrupt offers, and resolved not to sell his principles and his country for gold.

Judge Bradley has ordered an injunction against the Commissioners of the People's Bank at Bowling Green, restraining their further acting in that capacity, and particularly from holding an election for Directors. The Commissioners may show cause on the 20th of August, if they have any, why the injunction should not be continued.

The New York Citizen, John Mitchell's paper—is going for Buchanan. What becomes of the Know-Nothing boast that the foreigners are all going for Fremont? The Citizen is one of the ablest papers in the Union, with a circulation of upwards of 20,000, and is edited and controlled by Irish patriots, who came to this country to enjoy the peace and liberty of which they were deprived in Europe.

ODO COUNTY.—We have the most cheering news from this county. The Democrats are carrying everything before them.

Cassius M. Clay, of this State, is canvassing Indiana in behalf of the nigger worshippers.

The New Orleans Bulletin, of the 20th says that the city continued perfectly healthy. There was no sign of any epidemic.

Gov. Wright is canvassing Southern Indiana with great power and effect. His speeches everywhere are listened to with the profoundest attention, by immense masses of people. There are but few as effective speakers in the West.

The New York Herald says of itself: "The New York Herald adheres to the independent masses of the people, and is for them and with them in the cause of a good sweep revolution in the government."

Bennett is too modest entirely. Why did he not add. And for an independent office, with a sweeping salary—in France?

Izannah will give 25,000.—A correspondent of the Pennsylvania, writing from Springfield, Illinois, says:

"From the best and most reliable information I have, it would seem to be but one prevailing impression, and that the majority for Buchanan and Breckinridge will not fall short of, but more likely exceed, twenty-five thousand."

The Bowling Green Standard has the following:

John A. Allen, Democratic elector, made a speech at Jamestown, last Saturday. A Mr. Sampson, of Glasgow, answered him. After Mr. Sampson had concluded, Mr. Allen arose and announced six withdrawals from the Know-Nothings. We hope that Mr. Sampson will be more successful, and that like Sampson of old, he may pull down upon his head the Temple of Know-Nothings, and crush into atoms the Philistines.

We learn there were four or five withdrawals from the Know-Nothings in Scottsville on last Saturday. Allen is good for Buchanan by 300, if the Democrats do but half their duty.

FROM NICARAGUA.
The Granada left San Juan on the 21st inst. Gen. Walker had been elected President by an overwhelming majority. He was inaugurated on the 12th inst., with imposing ceremonies, Don Firmin Ferrer, the provisional President, delivered an address, resigning the reins of office, and administered the official oath to Gen. Walker, in the presence of an audience and enthusiastic assemblage. Gen. Walker answered in the following:

INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

In assuming the duties of the Presidency of the Republic, I feel deeply the difficulties and responsibilities which the office involves. The State is menaced by dangers from without and within, and there is need of sleepless vigilance and untiring energy to preserve the Government from the evils which threaten it. In order to sustain the independence and honor of the Republic, I trust all the assistance which can be derived from the patriotic efforts of its citizens, and from the skill, courage, and valor of its soldiers. On them, and the Divine Providence which controls and directs the affairs of states and empires, I rely for assistance in the proper discharge of my duties to-day assume.

The Republic has a glorious history in its history, not second in importance to the day of its independence from the Spanish monarchy. The 15th of September, 1821, was the opening of the revolutionary epoch of Nicaragua. I hope this day may be its close. The struggles of thirty-five years have, it is to be hoped, taught the people the value of freedom, and the necessity of the use of force, of constant vigilance, and the use of the sword, but frequently resort to the coffee for their coffee chocolate, and toast and butter in the morning which can be had in decent places for a dime. Afterwards they drop into the hotels and best saloons and with another dime procure a lemonade or claret and a very good dinner, and at afternoons and evenings go to the restaurants at a distance for meals. They invite their countrymen to these restaurants to dinner, when they extend their hospitality liberally and to the great satisfaction of their guests, without the expense of a single dollar.

They also are the eating places of ladies, temples, and gentlemen, and when they have no time to eat at the restaurants, they go to the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses are generally kept by Frenchmen or Italians, who cook and provide and charge high. A breakfast of two or three dollars, coffee, bread, and butter costs from 50 to 75 cents. Diminutive sum, or more, according to the number of dishes you have, and without claret or wine, the cheapest kinds of which are almost an invincible poison. Supper about the same as breakfast. No man can live at one of these, with two meals a day, for less than a dollar, and eat at the hotel and eat when they please. These houses

LOUISVILLE TIMES.

W. S. YANNER,
General Newspaper Advertising Agent, corner of Olive and Main Streets, St. Louis, Mo., is the Agent for the Times.

A. JACKSON,
SUCCESSOR TO W. T. CARRISON & CO., Newspaper Advertising Agents, Indianapolis, Real Estate and Patent Right Office.

No. 180, Main Street, St. Louis, Fourth Floor, Office, Cincinnati, O.

INDEPENDENT TICKET.

FOR CHANCELLOR.

WILLIAM W. FRY.

FOR CHIEF OF THE CHANCERY COURT.

CHAS. J. CLARKE.

FOR MARSHAL OF THE CHANCERY COURT.

DR. T. BOHANNON.

FOR MARSHAL OF THE CHANCERY COURT.

COR BREWSTER.

TUESDAY: AUGUST 6, 1856.

The jail at Lexington is without a single tenant.

A patent has been granted John McFar-nally of Lexington, for improved steam machine.

Col. Jack Allen, the commander of the Kentuckians in Nicaragua, arrived in New Orleans on the 23d ult.

Coca, water melons, and tomatoes, three luxuries which we the west enjoy in profusion, are now quite plentiful in our markets.

The Second Presbyterian Church of this city has called Rev. W. M. Paxton, of Pittsburg, to be its pastor.

Sales in Philadelphia Thursday, July 31st, of thirteen shares of stock in the Bank of Louisville, at $108.

We are again indebted to Adam's & Co.'s Express for late papers from all parts of the Union.

Our Elector, W. D. Reed, is winning golden opinions by his speeches. He is an able and eloquent gentleman.

The Democrats of Lexington have elected their City Marshal by 60 majority. This is indeed a triumph.

BURST.—Reported return from Bullitt county, show that the contest has been very close for county offices. The official we truly will tell who is elected.

Mr. Beech, of Indiana, was serenaded last night at the National Hotel after his speech at the Democratic Club, and many Democrats called on him.

The county of Jefferson shows about the same state of things as the city of Louisville.—
The Democrats did not vote, and the Know Nothings had everything their own way.

THE BUREAU.—In our paper this morning we give partial returns from a number of towns.—
There are no full returns from any county, and therefore, we are unable to say with certainty what will be the result.

THE CITY ELECTION.—We could not procure the returns, in detail, of the city last night.— Nor did we care much about it. It is enough to know that the Democrats did not vote, that the Know Nothings have falling off in their vote since last August about 700 votes—and that the clearest indications are that the Democrats have a decided majority in the city, if they had a chance to vote.

There was a fine meeting at the Democratic Club Room last night. Speeches were made by our elector, W. D. Reed, and by Mr. Beech, of Indiana. The speech of Mr. Beech was a true reflection of the sentiments of the Indiana Democracy, and elicited the most enthusiastic applause from the audience. He is an eloquent and able advocate of Democracy, and is worthy of the glorious Democratic State of Indiana.

A free fight came off at the corner of Jefferson and Salem Kitchens.—This road is between about twenty K. N.s. Black eyes and bloody noses were the order of the day. It was "pull Dick and Devil"—nobody cared who got whipped. Officer Kirkpatrick arrested one or two of the beligerents.

The Bowling Green Standard of Saturday day says: "We were blessed with a fine rain about noon on Wednesday. It rained hard for about half an hour. This will aid materially in saving the corn crop, which we hear is damaged seriously. Farmers in some portions of the county tell us that they will not make half a crop."

The vote yesterday, (we take the vote between Whipple and Bohannon, who policed the largest vote,) was 3,132—only about one-half of the number of voters in the city. The 3,600 votes unpolled are nearly all Democratic.

Whipple received 2,407 votes, and Bohannon 676—giving the Know-Nothings a majority of 1,781—about the same majority obtained by the Know-Nothings last August, when the Democrats polled 1,320 votes. This exhibits a large loss to the Know-Nothings.

AFFRAY AND DEATH.—There was an affray at Oakland Race Course, near this city, yesterday, which resulted in the death of Mr. Edward Shipp, and in the stabbing and shooting of two brothers
by the name of William and Hercules Walker.— All the parties live in the county. There had been a horse race, and a dispute arose between Shipp and the Walkers about something connected with it. From this dispute grew the affray.

A Coronet's inquest was held upon the body of Mr. Shipp, by Deputy Sheriff Morton, and the verdict of the inquest was that he came to his death by the hands of Wm. Walker. One of the Walker's was stabbed and the other shot. Both of their wounds are dangerous.

Private advices from New York Friday, report a brisk demand for Flour and Wheat at better prices. A dull Flour market and prices of New York lower. The stock of all kinds of wheat in the packing yards of New York and Brooklyn, was ascertained to be 41,000 bbls, against 34,000 bbls last month, and 53,000 bbls last year. Showing an increase of 7,000 bbls in the stock during the month of July, instead of a decrease as was confidently predicted. The receipts of provisions from the West at New York are larger than was expected, and the demand having fallen off of all kinds are accumulating.

The following sale of Negroes occurred in Bowling Green on the last County Court day:
One negro man 35 or 36 years old, $1,650.
One negro man about 62 years old, $425.
One negro woman 34 years old, $1,385.
One negro woman 18 months old, with boy child
2 years old, $900.
One negro woman 30 years old, with boy child
2 years old, $920.

One negro woman 16 years old, and her boy child 2 years old, $1,125.

One negro boy 12 years old, $650.

One negro girl 10 or 12 years old, $580.

One do do 8 or 9 years old, $580.

One do do 6 or 7 years old, $580.

One do do 4 or 5 years old, $580.

Amounting in all to $10,540.

The following is the result of a vote taken on the train from Indianapolis, to Louisville, yesterday.

Buchanan - - - - - 23.

Fillmore - - - - - 16.

Fremont - - - - - 4.

August 4th, 1856.

STEAMBOAT VOTE.—On the steamboat Alliance, from Mayville to Cincinnati, recently, a vote was taken on the Presidential question, which was as follows:

Buchanan - - - - - 16.

Fillmore - - - - - 15.

Fremont - - - - - 4.

Among the ladies the vote stood thus:

Buchanan - - - - - 9.

Fillmore - - - - - 2.

Fremont - - - - - 0.

The ladies, it will be seen, voted even more unanimous for Buchanan than the gentlemen.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal:

—Gentlemen—I call your attention to the first moment to inform you of one of most atrocious deeds of blood ever perpetrated in this section.
Our hitherto peaceful and quiet village was thrown into consternation this morning, upon entering the store of Messrs. Voorhees and Wilson, to find the latter, who slept there, stiffened in death—stricken down by the murderer of the midnight assassin. Upon an examination of the body, it was found to be that the particular bone was literally crushed and driven down deep into the brain. Mr. Wilson was about 27 years old, of unexceptionable character, had been reared in the neighborhood, and lived in this place several years. He was universally beloved by all who knew him. The sole purpose of the murderer seems to be to have been a few hundred dollars.

No one as yet has been discovered of the perpetrator of this crime, but it is conjectured to be one of the persons in the community, which will not number until the villain is brought to condign punishment.

Yours truly, R. A. S.

SALISBY, July 21, 1856.

CITY COURT.

MOSQUITOES.—The outbreak of the mosquitoes is trifling, and speedily suspended.

SARAGOROA.—The headquarters of the insurrectionists, where it is reported there is more than a legal quorum.

The Cortes have assembled, proclaiming liberty and the Constitution.

The failures aluded to in the previous steamer news are John Name, cutton broker, Liverpool; Joseph Wright, Company Shippers, Stockport; Low & Lee, Commission Merchants, Manchester; Bassett & Co., and four other houses.
Their liabilities are large and assets small.

The steamer Atlantic brings advices from Liverpool to the 23d ult. The Cunard steamship

Asia had arrived at Liverpool, and her advice had no effect on the market.

Mr. Cobbe's report is as follows:

—The Russian Ambassador at Rome, it is said, has arranged all the difficulties of the Holy See.

HANCOCK, July 22.—Cotton dull. The sales have been very small.

Flour is firm with an upward tendency.

Provisions are in demand, and the market is active.

VEGETABLES.—Potatoes, 7d.

Onions, 2d.

Carrots, 1d.

Turnips, 1d.

Radishes, 1d.

Onions, 1d.

Carrots, 1d.

Turnips, 1d.

Radishes, 1d.

CLOTHING & C.
WELLS & ARMSTRONG,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
No. 95 Fifth st., MARBLE HALL BUILDING.

ANX this day receipt, per American Express Co., from New York, of a large and elegant box of French Goods, consisting of Linen and Silk Vests, &c., selected in New York, by ourselves, from latest importations; also, Thos. P.
Wells & Armstrong, MERCHANT TAILOR, and the trade are invited to call and examine our extensive stock.

WELLS & ARMSTRONG.

MERCHANT TAILOR,
AND CLOTHIER,
MARKET ST., BET. FLOYD & PRESTON (Ninth Street).

THE undersigned has on hand a sufficient assortment of Clothing of all kinds—Made, to order, to measure, or to call, & I can assure them, they will receive prompt & satisfactory service. Call and examine whatever you may.

JOHN K. KAMM.

G. STRAUS'
MANUFACTURER OF CLOTHING,
56 MARKET STREET, BETWEEN THIRD AND FOURTH.

(A few doors above the Mechanics' Bank.)

LOUISVILLE, KY.
The undersigned has on hand a sufficient assortment of Clothing, such as Fine Dress and Frock Coats, Pants, and a bountiful assortment of Vest Patterns, of different sizes, also a fine stock of Furnishing Goods, such as Shirts, Underwear, &c., &c.

He invites country men to particular, to give him a call, and hopes by strict attention to his goods, to gain the confidence of the public patronage.

G. STRAUS.

J. M. CUTTER.

CRUTCHER & MILLER,

IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

RICH FANCY

DRESS GOODS,

SILKS, RIBBONS, TRIMMINGS,

Hosiery, Variety Goods and Notions

No. 411 MAIN STREET, 2 HOURS ABOVE SIXTH.

(Adjoining the Exchange Hotel.)

LOUISVILLE, KY.

1856. Spring, 1856.

The Demand of the Times.

A manufacturer of Cloth or Linen with them o
A good strong and Samuel trade is expected on every side, and we have provided for them on every side.

CLOTHING LINE.

the liberal patronage hitherto bestowed on our firm, and we have every reason to hope that we may have every satisfaction to be able to produce a stock of every variety of

SPRINGS AND SUMMER GARMENTS.

especially American.

in every style of our workmanship is a supply tested alread and sure to do us justice, we now wait for the decrease of the trade, and the success of their verdict.

LICHTER & CO.,

corner Fifth and Main streets.

New Organic Muslin at

BENT & DUVALL.

Main Street, between Second and Third.

OUR stock of Organdy Muslin is now the latest and most popular, and which have been received within the past few days.

Stingers, Visiting the in, and in wide and delightful colors, will be sure to find a corner of Main Street.

BENT & DUVALL,

1856. Spring, 1856.

Mark & Downey, 1856.

MAIN STREET.

RESPECTFULLY inform the citizens of all in want to the following Goods. Among them may be found the most valuable and the most popular.

THESE GOODS, comprising

Urgent, Linens, new styles;

Urgent, Linens, new styles;